Waiver and Release/Acceptance of Policies

I acknowledge and accept that I or my child(ren) will be participating in hands-on-cooking activities where there is an inherent risk of injury, e.g., from kitchen appliances, equipment, knives, allergic reactions or other participants.

I, for myself and/or my child(ren), hereby release, waive, discharge and agree not to sue AMG Catering and Event LLC or any of its officers, representatives or instructors, whether paid or volunteer, for any injury or damages in connection with the participation in the programs at AMG Catering and Events LLC. Furthermore, I have read, understand and accept the company polovies regarding cancellation, allergies and photo permission.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

INFORMATION FOR THE PARENTS

Children participating in our courses will learn how to serve and prepare age appropriate meals for the family. During these courses the children will use cooking knives, gas and electric appliances, and other kitchen utensils and equipment (hereinafter referred to as "Equipment"). It is understood and assumed that by registering your children in our courses, you are aware and consent to their use of such Equipment and consent to their participation in our course activities.

AMG Catering and Events LLC Staff will take all reasonable precautions to provide a safe environment for your children and will provide appropriate supervision. However, it is your responsibility as the parent to determine whether your child has the ability to safely participate in the course activities.

Students will only be picked up by persons designated on the registration form. Given that there may be other courses and/or events following a particular class it is important that the parents be on time picking up their children. AMG Catering and Events LLC can not be responsible for students not picked up on time after class.

EMERGENCIES

In the event of a serious medical emergency, AMG Catering and Events LLC staff will call 911 and will notify the parent and/or designated emergency contact. Minor medical emergencies will be dealt with as appropriate by the AMG Catering and Events LLC staff, the student themselves and/or a parent or designated contact will be called.

ALLERGIES

The AMG Catering and Events LLC kitchen is NOT a nut free environment. When registering, participants must accept the responsibility of notifying the staff of AMG Catering and Events LLC of any food allergies or special needs. AMG Catering and Events LLC cannot be held responsible if students eat or touch foods to which they are allergic. Please choose the courses wisely keeping in mind not only your child's tastes and abilities but also any allergies or other medical conditions that may make a course inappropriate for your child.

BEHAVIOR

All participants in our courses are expected to behave appropriately. AMG Catering and Events LLC reserves the right to ask any participant who is acting inappropriately and/or disturbing the experience of other students to leave. In such situations, no refunds or credits will be provided.

Children enrolled in our courses are expected to observe appropriate classroom behavior. If a child is exhibiting behavior which jeopardizes either the safety or the positive experience of other children, AMG Catering and Events LLC reserves the right to ask that child to be picked up from class. AMG Catering and Events LLC reserves the right to refuse, suspend and/or expel a child from participation in a course.

I hereby release AMG Catering and Events LLC from any and all claims, damages, and liability arising from or related to my child's participation in AMG Catering and Events LLC courses.

CANCELLATION POLICY

You must cancel 6 weeks before camp start date to receive a full refund.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

By my signature below I acknowledge that I have read and understand the above policies and procedures and agree to abide by them.
